5 medias

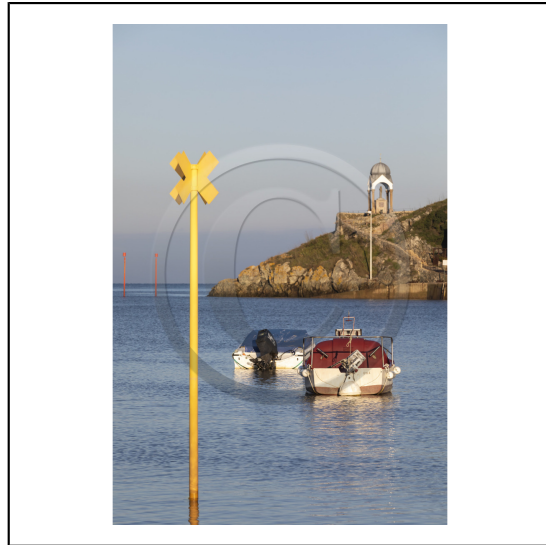

Pléneuf-Val-André is located in the Côtes-d'Armor department in the Brittany region.
It is known as a family seaside resort, located on the east coast of the bay of Saint-Brieuc, known as the "Côte de Penthievre".
Its coastline has two marinas (Dahouët and the port of Piégu), several beaches (Grande Plage du Val-André or Grève de Saint-Symphorien1) and a rocky coast.
The hinterland is provided with agricultural land in the middle of which stands the village of Pléneuf.
